- I am applying for the grant/loan from the John Wesley Seminary Foundation for the _____ school year, declaring that it is my purpose to devote my life to full-time ministry through the Free Methodist Church.
- I understand I am to be actively involved in a Free Methodist Church while receiving JWSF funds. If required to attend other than a Free Methodist Church to fulfill academic requirements, I will apply for a waiver through the JWSF office. If I choose to attend other than a Free Methodist Church, I will provide a written rationale (annually) to my conference ministerial education and guidance (MEG) board who may determine if the rationale is acceptable. If so, the superintendent will notify the JWSF office in writing of the MEG board's action, prior to approval of the JWSF grant/loan.
- Applications received in the JWSF office will be forwarded to conference superintendent and MEG board for their recommendation.

John Wesley Seminary Foundation (JWSF)
Grant/Loan Repayment Agreement

- Repayment of the JWSF grant/loan through service is based on five years of full-time appointed service (twenty percent reduction per year) as follows:

Full-time appointment to a Free Methodist ministry by an annual conference.

Full-time appointment through Free Methodist World Missions.

Full-time military or institutional chaplaincy appointment, endorsed by the denomination.

Full-time administrative appointment by the Free Methodist denomination.

Full-time faculty or administrative appointment at a Free Methodist elementary, secondary, or post-secondary school.

- Repayment of the JWSF grant/loan by appointed service begins after graduation or after discontinuing the seminary program, even if the recipient is in full-time appointed service while attending school.
- Recipients who do not receive a full-time appointment or who choose to serve outside of the Free Methodist Church agree to repay the grant/loan plus interest to the John Wesley Seminary Foundation beginning nine months after graduation with quarterly payments over ten years and nine months.
- Recipients agree to keep the JWSF office informed of their full-time appointments in the Free Methodist Church, or ministry/work outside the Free Methodist Church (including current address), until repayment is made in full.
- I understand the above requirements will fulfill my obligation to the Free Methodist Church of North America. I agree to abide by this agreement.
